HOUSE AND PLATE SAFES.

TO THIS CELEBRATED SAFE was awarded the GOLD MEDAL, at the World's Fair in London, in 1851.

NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C. HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired.

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true "SALAMANDER" renders it unnecessary for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these Safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the "Genuine S lamanders" has ever been destroyed.

Safes sold at New York price, with the freight to Wilmington added. No commission charged in Wilmington. We are prepared to take orders for these celebrated Safes. Samples can be seen at our office in a few days.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Thursday, May 31, 1866.

OUR TERMS

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month,	1 00
" two months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly, per year,	5 00
Weekly, per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

Lieutenant Governor.

The Convention, on Tuesday, passed, on its second reading, the bill creating in North Carolina the office of Lieutenant Governor of the State.

We have heretofore expressed, through the columns of the Sentinel, our views with reference to this subject. We think that there are many excellent reasons why such an office should be instituted, and are at a loss to conceive any valid objection to its creation. The experiment, as tried in other States, has been attended with admirable success, and the same considerations that have demonstrated its utility and convenience elsewhere apply with equal force to our own condition. Indeed, we have never been able to see why the reasons which sustain the wisdom and propriety of having a Vice-President are not equally operative as to the policy of having a similar officer in our system of State government.

It will be well to have an alternate officer, to whom the Executive administration shall be entrusted, in the event of the death or the disability of the Governor, who is himself directly the selection of the people, and not, as might happen, in the case of the presiding officer of the Senate, one who is but the accidental choice of a party or a section. It is equally well that the presiding officer of the Senate should be a man who, disconnected from the local feuds or internal squabbles that so frequently prevail in every legislative body, is prepared to act impartially, and for the interests of the whole State, in cases where his vote is required for the decision of questions of State policy.

The expense involved in the creation of such an office will be inconsiderable, in view not only of the positive benefits, but of the added dignity to the State Government.

The Union Men

We observe a disposition on the part of the "sore-heads," ever and anon, to whine over the intolerable sufferings of the so-called Union men in the State. But they are careful to deal in generalities, leaving the public to imagine what it pleases. We have the highest respect for true Union men. Those few men in the State, who preserved their consistency amid the storm, and yet were quiet and exhibited a proper spirit, enjoy as much the confidence of the people as they ever did. Some of the Union men were badly treated during the war. Nevertheless, we have yet to see the first genuine Union man, who has shown a persecuting, bitter spirit, or who is now disposed to persecute those who differed with him.—They are always to a man in favor of a general amnesty. The spirit that would disfranchise or ostracise their fellow-citizens comes, generally, from so-called Union men.

The same spirit of forbearance, so far as we have been able to learn, towards their opponents, characterises those who supported the war. If Union men have been and are persecuted in this State by those who differed with them, on account of their Union principles, we have no evidence of it whatever. We deny the charge and demand the proof. It is by these false and illiberal charges, that the State is damaged, and for the purpose of effecting a mean and despicable end. We dare the libellers of the State and people to produce their evidence. Many so-called Union men are unlovely Ishmaelites, who hate their betters and yet claim to be beloved in return. Their hands are against every man who differs with them, and yet they expect the objects of their malice to kiss the hand that smites them. Our people desire concord, desire to forget the past, to live in harmony with all, but the "sore heads" are determined to keep up a clamor against them, in order to invoke the wrath of the Radical Congress upon them. Out upon such wretched meanness!

The University.

We very cheerfully give place, to-day, to the article of "A Student and Confederate Soldier of 1861—'65." Its admission is not a departure from the course we suggested a few days ago.—That was designed to forestall any further discussion of matters relating to the "Ball Managers," and the attack made upon the students. We are always glad to admit to our columns any article in defence of the University and its Faculty. We have never seen the attack of the Fayetteville News, but we have no sympathy with such attacks. We have all confidence in the ability, discretion and freedom from all improper political or sectarian bias of the Faculty. If any remark of ours has been construed into any, the least, opposition to the University, it is a total misconception of our designs. We are advocates of judicious progress. In drawing a parallel between the success of the University and other institutions, our design was to stimulate the friends of the University to rally to its support and put it upon the high road to progress, and to make it, as far as possible, meet fully the demand of the times. As between the North Carolina University and North Carolina schools, and North Carolina enterprises of any sort, and those of other States, we do not hesitate a moment. We are for the Old North State, now and forever, against the world,—in all that pertains to her honor and her internal interests.

The Radical Programme.

It will be seen, by the telegraphic summary of Congressional proceedings, in another column, that the Senate has stricken out the third, or general disfranchising, section of the "Reconstruction" programme. We should be pleased to deduce, from this action of the Senate, a more hopeful augury than we do, but the indications are that policy alone has dictated a limitation, only, of the terms of disfranchisement. It seems to be generally understood that the Republicans in caucus were unable to agree upon the sweeping clause, and hence, to avoid dissensions in the ranks, it was dropped, and a less general substitute adopted. The disfranchisement of so large a class of our people, as that contemplated by the new propositions, will be as justly hateful to our people as their own exclusion from civil and political rights en masse. They would scorn to purchase immunity for themselves at the sacrifice and betrayal of those whom they invested with authority to act for them. In other words, they feel that, having done everything that was required of them by the Executive head of the nation, as necessary to restoration, they are entitled to it, without further conditions,—and, especially, without conditions as degrading as those implied even in the qualified action of the merciful Radical majority in the Senate. The only importance, perhaps, which is to be attached to the action of that body,—though that is encouraging, as far as it goes,—is that it affords indubitable evidence that the strength of the President's position is beginning to tell.

While these indications of weakness exist in the Senate, Thad. Stevens, it will have been noticed, has put forward a scheme of intolerance and ruin, in the House, that surpasses, in malignity and vindictiveness, any that has hereto-fore emanated from that arch-disunionist.—The rebuke which he received, at the hands of some of his own friends, a few days since, does not appear to have lessened his ever-bearing arrogance or softened his diabolical temper.

All that we can do under these threatening signs, is to fold our arms and await the issue. We can only cultivate the mens æqua in arduis, and seek to find, in diligent attention to our State and personal interests, what diversion we can from our apprehensions and our actual sufferings. The spectacle of a people, thus helpless and thus engaged, would excite the clemency and the sympathies of any other class than the Radical malignants of this day of moral progress [so called.]

Thaddeus Stevens Assailing Mr. McCulloch—His Dictation not Heeded—Senatorial Manner of Punishing Cabinet Members—The Senatorial Caucus—The Reconstruction Scheme to be Modified.

(Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.)

The surmise that the radicals in Congress would assail the Secretary of the Treasury on account of his adhesion to the President's policy of conciliation was soon verified. Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, the radical leader, sounded the charge on Saturday against Mr. McCulloch, and his party was expected to follow. The House did not, however, see the propriety at the time of abolishing a constitutional provision by a clause in a revenue bill, at the dictation of their leader. Therefore, Mr. Stevens will renew the attempt, at another time, to take from the Secretary or the President all appointing power that they may have under the constitution. Mr. Morrill exhibited a commendable desire to banish party politics and topics from the consideration of the revenue bill. The republican Senate will resent and punish the refractory cabinet ministers in some other way—that is, by rejecting nominations for office, and withholding pay from appointees until their nomination shall be confirmed. Perhaps Mr. Stevens gained his entire object by taking an opportunity to denounce the Secretary, and thus endeavor to diminish the confidence which the public have reposed in him.

The republican senatorial caucus will result in a proposition essentially to modify the report of the committee of fifteen. If the extreme radicals have come into Mr. Sherman's measure, which is doubtful, it may command a two-thirds vote. There are nine democrats and three republicans who can be counted against it; only twelve against thirty-seven. Mr. Morgan, Mr. Willey, and Mr. Stewart will probably support the new plan, though the last named Senator would prefer his own. The new scheme will base representation on voters, omit the third section which deprives citizens of the right of voting for four years, and provide that ex-rebels shall not be eligible to State or Federal office. If the radical extremists, to the number of five or six, support this or some similar plan, they will carry it by two-thirds. The Senators, in caucus, it is said, considered the subject of a recess of Congress, and decided that it would be unnecessary. Ione.

It is affirmed in Washington with some confidence that Mr. Davis is not to be "tried" for some months, and that no indictment has been framed, as alleged.

The presence of Mr. Davis's counsel with him at Fortress Monroe indicates the opposite, however, unless indeed it be intended to make application for bail. This, at least, ought to be immediately accorded him. It would be much more creditable, however, if the government would rise to the magnanimity of discharging him. The Toronto (Canada) Leader says: "The most dignified and honorable course the Government of the United States can pursue is to say to the prisoner, 'We set you free provided you promise to retire into private life and trouble us no more.' If, however, he is to be tried before a jury of his countryman, the trial ought not to be delayed a day longer than the necessary preliminaries of the law require. The treatment to which he has so long been subjected is a mild species of torture, unworthy of a great country like the United States."

The election in West Virginia has probably resulted in favor of the test-oath constitutional amendment. Those whom it proposed to disfranchise were excluded from voting, and the remnant of the voters decided to proscribe them permanently, by a majority which will probably be small, and less than half even of those entitled to vote under the present infamous registry law.

To show, however, the tendency of public sentiment, and the fast approaching doom of the usurping party, Ohio county, which last October gave the Republicans 131 majority, has voted the other way by a majority of 344. A little more time is all that is wanted.

The town of Romney, in Hampshire county, voted against the constitutional amendment proscription of "West" Virginia by a vote of 104 to one!—Rich. Enquirer.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, May 30th, 1866.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Henry Hardie, of the Presbyterian Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, introduced an ordinance to regulate interest. Referred to the committee on Constitutional Amendments.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, a resolution concerning maimed and disabled soldiers. (Extends the provisions of the several resolutions of General Assembly in favor of disabled soldiers (to provide them with artificial limbs) to all such soldiers from North Carolina, whether in the Confederate or Federal service; provided, that no one shall receive any of the benefits of said resolutions, whose wants have been supplied by the United States government.)

Mr. Moore, of Wake, from the committee to which were referred ordinances repealing section eleven, and the provisos to section nine, of the act of Assembly, entitled an act concerning negroes and persons of color or of mixed blood, submitted a report (which was read, and ordered to be printed) recommending their passage.

Two ordinances in relation to Homesteads (heretofore introduced) came up on second reading, and were made, on motion of Mr. Faulkner, a special order for 12 o'clock M. to-morrow.

An ordinance to incorporate the Oceanic Hook and Ladder Company of the town of Beaufort, passed second reading.

An ordinance "to secure the rights of citizens of North Carolina, in the navigable waters of the State," was referred, on motion of Mr. Winston, to a select Committee.

The President appointed the following Committee, viz: Messrs. Winston, Winburne, Pool, Johnston and Stuart.

Mr. McKay, of Harnett, introduced an ordinance to pay Provisional Judges of Courts of Oyer and Terminer for their services. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

An ordinance in relation to the act of the General Assembly, entitled "Revenue," passed its second reading.

A resolution (heretofore introduced) for the relief of the people by suspending the collection of taxes. (Instructs inquiry by the Finance Committee as to the expediency of such action.) Adopted.

A resolution for the relief of the Counties of Rutherford and Polk, on second reading, was referred to the Finance Committee.

An ordinance of like purview was also referred, on second reading, to the same Committee.

An ordinance to ratify the transfer of the Fayetteville and Western Plank Road to the Counties of Cumberland, Harnett, Moore and Randolph, on second reading, was laid on the table after discussion.

SPECIAL ORDER.

An ordinance amending the Constitution on the basis of Representation, was put on its second reading.

Mr. Love moved, as a substitute for the committee's ordinance, an ordinance entitled "An ordinance on the basis of Representation."

(This substitute proposes to make white population the basis of representation both in the House of Commons and in the Senate. The ordinance of the committee, for which the substitute is offered, proposes to base representation in the House of Commons upon the white population, leaving the basis of Senatorial representation as at present.)

The question recurring the amendment was rejected. Ayes 29, nays 51.

On motion of Mr. Phillips the further consideration of the ordinance was postponed until half past 10 o'clock to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Love the Convention proceeded to consider the amended Constitution of the State.

To section 9, article 1st. of the Declaration of Rights, which reads as follows:

"No freeman shall be convicted of any crime but by the unanimous verdict of a jury of good and lawful men, in open court, as heretofore used,"

Mr. Caldwell, of Guilford, moved to add, by way of amendment, as follows: "But may be for a misdemeanor, but shall not be denied the right of appeal in such cases." Mr. Caldwell said that his object in offering the amendment, was to place it in the power of the Legislature to provide that some of the most trivial misdemeanors may be disposed of by magisterial or other summary jurisdiction.

Mr. McCorkle thought the adoption of the amendment would encourage the commission of offences. He deemed the amendment unnecessary. Any change in organic law which will enable persons to violate it with impunity, should be discouraged.

Messrs. Moore, of Wake, Phillips and Boyden approved the principle embodied in the amendment.

Mr. Conigland thought an amendment of this character was eminently desirable. The administration of justice should be facilitated and cheapened as much as possible. The number of justices of the peace should also be diminished and the character of their office elevated.

Mr. McKay opposed the amendment. It would be impolitic to confer the powers of both judge and jury upon single magistrates. The character of many of these functionaries would render this enlargement of their jurisdiction extremely hurtful.

Six Courts were now held every year in each County. If these were not adequate to the administration of justice, they should be held more frequently.

Mr. Furches opposed the amendment for similar reasons.

Mr. Walkup opposed the object contemplated in the amendment, and adverted to the fact that trivial cases crowded the dockets of the courts, to the delay of those of greater moment, retarding the course of justice, and incurring costs to an extent that had become onerous and vexatious.

Mr. Dick favored the amendment. The section as it stands was solely intended for the protection of the citizen, but its operation was injurious instead of beneficial. It retarded the administration of justice, promoted litigation, and increased taxes without any corresponding benefit.

Mr. Winston approved the object the gentleman wished to attain, but was opposed to the manner in which he proposed to attain it. If plenary jurisdiction of misdemeanors were given to Justices of the Peace, there would be no uniformity in the administration of justice,—no uniformity of procedure or punishment.—These irresponsible tribunals would be bribed or bullied, and men guilty of misdemeanors might be rendered infamous without any record of the proceedings being had.

Pending a vote on the proposed amendment, the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

The President has approved the Postoffice Appropriation bill. The aggregate amount for inland service is $18,379,500. Besides this $1,300,000 is appropriated for the transportation of mails to Brazil, Japan, China, and by sea, to California.

For the Sentinel.

The University of North Carolina.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The undersigned has just read an article, with the above heading, which appeared in the Fayetteville News, of the 22nd. inst., and as he fears that statements of the kind which it contains may injure the University, and be detrimental to its Faculty, unless contradicted, and knowing them to be unfounded, he begs leave to inform those, who have had the felicity of reading the article referred to, of the true state of the case.

I would begin by respectfully requesting the Editor of the Fayetteville News, since all of us have not the power of divination or of discovering realities where none exist, to point out some of those "enlightened innovations" which are to be introduced into our Colleges and Universities, and which he seems so much to fear and deprecate; and since he does not specify the University of North Carolina in that clause of his criticism, as the only one which will be subject to those innovations, I can but conclude that he dreads such introductions into all the Collegiate Institutions, South; and if they will not consider me too presumptuous, I would suggest to the President of Lexington College, of the University of Virginia and others, to be forewarned by the co-Editor of the Fayetteville News, and prepare themselves manfully to fight against the "monstrum horrendum, informa ingens, cui lumen ademptum."

But it seems to me that, as we live in a progressive age, it would be unfair to exclude Universities alone from benefitting from recent discoveries, and could any change be wrought in our Colleges that would be beneficial, I, for one, can see no objection to their being wrought. And I will, with his permission, since he appears ignorant of the fact, inform the Editor of the Fayetteville News that if there is one thing more than any other that Gov. Swain,—I would on no consideration be so undignified as to designate him by any other title—and the Faculty are in danger of not appreciating it, it is that of the necessity of innovation, and I hope and expect that, after seeing these facts, the Editor will agree with me in thinking that he comes nearer harmonizing with Gov. Swain and the Faculty than he at first was aware of.

The Fayetteville Editor designates Governor Swain as a renegade and likens him to ten Turks. Webster—I am rather afraid to quote him, as he instituted innovations in the English language, and would not, could I think of one who has not,—says a renegade is an apostate from faith, a deserter and a vagabond. As I never heard of Gov. Swain's being anything but a Presbyterian, and had not heard, till I saw the article in the Fayetteville News, that he had been in the army, and no one will call him a vagabond, and as he has been known through the war as a consistent Union man, I will not reply to that part of the accusation, believing it totally unnecessary; but would remind the Editor of the News, that since he merely heard "that Gov. Swain had got to be a renegade," and as reports are not always true, discretion should at least have restrained him from making such a grave charge against an old man and a faithful public servant, and that he must recollect "Nescit vox missa reverti."

No one, who has the slightest knowledge of the ties that exist between Gov. Swain and Gov. Vance, would for a moment believe that the former could have any hand in a slight or insult offered the latter, whom he has ever regarded with paternal affection. The facts in regard to the Commencement address are simply these:

Gov. Vance wrote a friend in Chapel Hill, asking for advice from the Faculty in regard to the propriety of his accepting the invitation under his present circumstances. Gov. Swain declined to give any advice on the subject, but recommended him to apply to other friends, better qualified to judge in a matter so delicate and important than gentlemen so retired from public affairs. Of the other friends here, who were consulted, one or two advised against his coming, and one or two decided that he should accept. Gov. Vance inclined to the side of prudence and declined the invitation.

The students met and by a vote of both Societies renewed the invitation, and urged it in a letter which was endorsed by Gov. Swain and Judge Battle, in which they declared that their object was to secure an address that would soothe and quiet existing excitements,—an address that would benefit all classes and promote the cause of peace and harmony. This letter was carefully prepared for future reference, in case it should be called for.

Thus urged, and with a compliment so unprecedented as the union of the two Societies in the matter, Gov. Vance finally accepted, and if any body is anxious to hear a good speech at Commencement, he had better come on. Any attempt to represent Gov. Swain, or any of the Faculty, as acting the part of politicians or partisans, must be futile where they are known.—Their aim is to avoid all collision with party or sect, and to keep the University, as it was delivered to them, a pure and health-giving fountain of virtue, liberty and science. So may it ever be!

I cannot help thinking it is a very small business, indeed, for North Carolinians to be engaged in,—the attacking thus our University, and exalting those of other States in comparison. Hurra for Virginia! they cry,—only look at her colleges! I imagine that a comparison of the course, pursued by our seventy students, with that of the two hundred and fifty-eight assembled at Charlottesville, would be found to the advantage of the former.

North Carolina never has had cause to be ashamed of the curriculum of her University, and has none now. It has always been thorough, and has lately been adapted to meet the wants of those whom the war has not left time or means to pursue the whole course.

As to Gov. Swain's offering insult to the Southern dead in his conversation, I would say, as before, I have not the power of discovering realities where none exist, and since my return to college, after the surrender of Johnston's army, I have not heard an allusion or remark from Gov. Swain, or any of the Faculty, that even by distortion could be so construed. With reference to the kind of language used by the Editor of the News in his denunciation of Gov. Swain, I can but express unfeigned surprise.—That a public journalist should, in his editorial, designate an Ex-Governor, a man who has been President of the University of his State for over thirty years, as a master of jokes, as garrulous, and to say his political opinions grow insulting to his people in his last days, is but another exemplification of the saying, "No might nor greatness in mortality can censure 'scape; back-wounding calumny the whitest virtue strikes. What King so strong can tie the gall up in the slanderous tongue?"

I would say to the Editor, he could pursue no more certain way to cloud his own bright record for gallant service, during the late war, than such attacks upon a venerable public servant. The University needs all her friends.—I cannot doubt that she has many, and they should see to it that, between irritated and violent politicians of different stripes and bigots of every shade, she does not go to the wall.—Let there be as much scrutiny into her present management as possible, but let that scrutiny be just and generous. The Trustees and Faculty are not omniscient and may often err, but let nobody make false statements or give circulation to malicious representations. The times are so unhappily out of joint, that it is impossible for public officers to escape censure from some party or other. The motto of the University, just now, might well be

"The little dogs and all,
Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart, see they bark at me."

I cannot but think it is an especially ungracious task for a young man to set himself deliberately to assail and vilify an institution and its officers, of whom he certainly has at least no personal knowledge. I recommend all such to look well to the accuracy of their correspondents from Chapel Hill. There is such a thing as over-shooting the mark, and all inexperienced gunners should have in view the fate of the unfortunate marksman, celebrated by Hudibras:

"Whose gun, well stored for duck and plover, Bore wide and kicked the owner over."

I can think of no one, to whom the people of North Carolina are more indebted, than to Gov. Swain. From the time that he, in company with Gov. Graham and others, met Sherman's army below Raleigh, he has labored incessantly to ameliorate the condition of the people of his State, collectively, and of persons, individually. Many there will be who, if they see this article, will acknowledge that to Gov. Swain, and to him alone, they owe their pardon and present ameliorated condition, and I may be excusable, if I state that publicity will soon be given to a matter which, through Gov. Swain's influence, has been accomplished, and which should and will endear his memory to succeeding generations of his State.

In conclusion, Messrs. Editors, I call upon the people of the State to frown down upon such insidious attacks upon its University.

The Poet says:

"A thousand years scarce serve to form a State,
A single day may throw it into dust."

The writers of such articles may say they do not intend to destroy the University,—that their actions are aimed exclusively for its benefit.—To such I would ask, what constitutes the University? If buildings do, there are more here now than before the war. If facilities for communication do, they are the same as before 1860. No, it is its Faculty. Then I would ask, what class of men are more competent to revive the Institution than those who raised it to its acme of prosperity before the war? They are the same, without a single exception; and who is more likely to guide it successfully through vicissitudes than the President of thirty years of experience; and no one who knows Gov. Swain can accuse him of waning powers.

Well might Gen. W. R. Davie, and his noble band of revolutionary patriots, say, when they obtained the charter for the University,

Regalique situ pyramidum altius."

But, ah! how different will be the record of those who, by their attacks upon it, through hatred of its Faculty, have annihilated in a day the labor of years on the part of their ancestors! And what will posterity say when they visit the site of what was once the University of N. C., and find only bare walls and deserted rooms, crumbling buildings and neglected walks, but heap anathemas upon the heads of its destroyers?

No alumnus would be so ungrateful as to attack his alma mater, when she is struggling for existence and on the eve of dissolution, but the blows come from stranger's hands, and strangers are ready and eager to give her the decisive push that would precipitate her over the brink into destruction below.

Forever would it be a blot upon the fair escutcheon of North Carolina, if she permits the evil machinations of a few distempered spirits to destroy her University.

TRIAL OF MAJOR JOHN H. GEE.

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY.

Reported by George J. Manson, Stenographer.

FIFTY FIRST DAY.

GENERAL BRADLEY T. JOHNSON, a witness for defence, was called and duly sworn:

Questioned by Col. Holland:

Q. State your name, residence and occupation?

A. Bradley T. Johnson, Raleigh, N. C., lawyer.

Q. What rank did you hold in the Confederate army during 1864-'65?

A. Brigadier General.

Q. When did you come to Salisbury, and what were you sent there for, and by whose orders?

A. I was assigned to the command of the post at Salisbury, in charge of the Federal prisoners of war there, by order of the Secretary of war, dated November; I did not reach there till Dec. 17th., and assumed command by a general order of my own on the 20th.

Q. Was Gen. Winder at Salisbury at the time you assumed command?

A. He was, sir.

Q. Did Gen. Winder issue any orders there relative to the stopping of work at that prison?

A. He did. He issued a special order to Major Mason Morfitt, the prison Quartermaster, directing him not to proceed with work upon the shelters for the prisoners, because it was the intention to remove them immediately to South Carolina. I think that is nearly the language of the order, sir.

Q. Did Major Gee have command over Major Mason Morfitt or Captain Goodman, or the Surgeons of the prison?

A. He did not.

Q. Do you know of Major Gee having reported to Richmond his inability to control the officers there, and asking for a proper officer to be sent there to control them?

A. No sir. I know this: I obtained the command of Salisbury for personal reasons of my own, and very much against the will of the Secretary of War, who had always been very much my friend. After some debate on the subject, he at last agreed to my getting this command at Salisbury, "because," said he, "there has been so much trouble there among the officers in regard to rank, it will be very proper to send an officer of your rank there to take charge of matters." The same explanation was made to me here.—On my way to Salisbury I stopped here for a day and saw Gen. Holmes, who was then in command of North Carolina; the trouble there, he said, was with the officers in command of the troops and the staff officers stationed there.

Q. Were the staff officers under the control of General officers commanding the post?

A. No Sir: I could refer you to General orders in the Adjutant General's office here, that would make that clear; but I cannot state the law particularly. In regard to this very point at Salisbury I consulted the Assistant Adjutant General, Col. Clay, in regard to my control over those staff officers, and I found I could not do anything with Goodman. I never had any occasion to have any trouble with Myers; he always did what I wanted him to do. I could not control Goodman. I consulted Col. Clay if I had any power to control these officers of the post. They said: "Well you cannot do that; you cannot control these people at all," I said, "I am responsible for that post; I consider my duty something more than inspecting the post and seeing that they have the proper detail of men; said he, "your duties are no more than to see if anything goes wrong with the officers of the post and report it and we will relieve them."

I went there the 17th. of December, and assumed command on the 20th., and remained in command until the 13th. of January, I think. I started to go away, but a storm came up and broke up the Railroad and I came back; and a fire started and the transportation in that section of country was broken up; there was no communication by railroad to the Western portion of the State where the supplies came for the prisoners, and they could not get any. I telegraphed to the Secretary of War and got authority to repair the road, and, as soon as the trains got to going, I went away. When I got back, in February, I found things were not in the order I desired them; in the first place, neither the troops or prisoners had been supplied with wood, and a requisition for straw for the prisoners had not been supplied them; I got back on the 8th. of February; as soon as I came back I found this condition of things about straw and wood, and went to Morfit to get wood for the prisoners, and found the proper quantity had not been supplied them; I examined the hospitals and found men lying on the ground calling for the surgeon, and found that the surgeon had got 800 pounds of straw and he required ten thousand pounds, up to the 12th. of February. Goodman replied to me that the roads were muddy and the teams were broken down and he could not get straw or wood, and I reported the facts pretty soon; that was on the 17th. of February.

Q. How many prisoners of war did you send away from that post?

A. Five thousand two hundred prisoners of war and citizens belonging to the United States.

Q. How many citizens belonging to the United States?

A. I do not know; there were not very many but how many I cannot tell. Col. Hoke marched away 2,980; I think that was the number marched out of there; they were sent off on the 22nd. of February in three separate trains.

Q. Were the sick sent to Wilmington, or did you send them to Richmond?

A. All of them were sent to Richmond—every man—under charge of a Surgeon and with proper supplies.

Q. Where did all those Wilmington prisoners of war come from?

A. A portion of them came from Andersonville where they were removed to a place on the Railroad called Milton, thence to Charleston, thence to Florence S. C., then they started to move them to Salisbury, but I telegraphed to the authorities at Richmond most positively that prisoners could not be supported there; 370 had reached Salisbury by that time, and I was authorized to send them back and did so. The prisoners that were at Wilmington came from Salisbury, and the well men went to Wilmington and from thence to Richmond.

Q. How many prisoners of war were the authorities at Richmond going to send you?

A. Seven thousand was the telegraph.

Q. And they were moving toward you?

A. The head of the column had got to me. A large number were at Raleigh, at Wilmington and Greensboro; they had run them from Florance, to Wilmington and Greensboro.

Q. While you were at that post did Major Gee come to you frequently, and you to him, consulting about the amelioration of the condition of those prisoners?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What anxiety did he show for the sufferings of those prisoners?

A. I could not tell the exact degree. It was a prominent thought on Major Gee's mind; he did not think of any thing in the world but those prisoners, as far as I could judge by his conversation and his conduct; he never went to bed till late at night, and got up early in the morning, and was continually out for them. He made applications for fuel. When I got there the post was in a very disorganized condition. Major Gee was having difficulty with Major Myers, who would not obey his orders, and he was quarreling with Major Goodman, and they would have a quarrel with Myers and have nothing to do with him. I could not arrest this Post Quartermaster and could do nothing except to apply to Richmond for relief. Before going there Gen. Gardner had recommended Major Gee as an officer of great moderation, and I am not certain whether or not Gen. Bragg did not. Gen. Gardner said if I could keep him in his place to do so, that he was a valuable man. The first thing I did was to examine into the condition of the post. I was convinced, as far as the fair dealing went, in the prison, that there was no swindling—nothing of that kind—but I was not certain how things went on in the cook house. I was pretty soon convinced that Myers did his duty in furnishing the rations, and convinced that the parties about headquarters had no improper tampering with the rations; but what went on in the cook house I had more difficulty in making up my mind upon. I went there or sent an officer there, I am not certain but what I went with him, and with Major Gee, to see about the quantity and quality of rations, and I was utterly unable to find out how those men were cheated out of their rations, (for they were cheated,) and I conscientiously came to the conclusion that if there was any cheating at all, it was done by the sentinels on duty, who took what was gained in baking. I am convinced that nothing of the kind went on out of the prison.

Q. Do you recollect Maj. Gee asking you to order them to investigate it when he was absent, or would know nothing about it?

A. I am not certain that it was exactly in that form; Maj. Gee saw that I was trying to inspect the condition of the prison and he said: "I am glad to see you; I desire you to make the most thorough examination possible," but I did not suppose that was from any notion that I had suspected him, because I never did.

Q. Did you see the loaves of bread at various times?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much did they weigh?

A. I could not tell; they weighed over the weight that a loaf of bread ought to weigh, but it did not weigh enough over. The regulations prescribe that one third—33 per cent. of the flour—is saved in the baking, and the loaves did not weigh 33 per cent. over the weight; that is, a pound of bread did not weigh a pound and a third of dough. We had no object in having a post fund; we did not attempt to do that—and it was not proper to do so; and instead of giving a man sixteen ounces of bread he ought to have had the full allowance; I sent for the baker and asked him why it was not done, and he pretended to be ignorant of the fact, and made some excuse about the flour; the weight was over the regulation allowance,—over two or four ounces,—I am satisfied of that,—the weight of the loaf,—just the dough. I thought if the men got two or three ounces more than the regulation to let it go. I found that the extra rations accumulating there was for the working parties,—for men on wood detail and working in the ditches,—and that is the way this extra quantity of flour was used up.

Q. After all the diligent scrutiny that you made there, were you not able to discover that there was any cheating of the prisoners?

A. I am very confident there was none whatever, except it might have been the small one of the guard stealing a loaf of bread,—something of that sort. As soon as I got a man there I relieved Major Gee from having anything to do with it, and put him in charge of it, and, from the middle of February out, Maj. Gee had nothing to do with the rations.

CITY CHANGES.—Messrs. Branson and Farrar have moved their Book-Store, &c., to Turner's N. C. Book Store, and it is intimated that the two establishments are to be consolidated.

The Field and Fireside office is to be transferred to the store vacated by Messrs. Branson and Farrar.

The extensive Book and Job Printing establishment of Messrs. Nichols, Gorman and Neathery has been moved up to the room above Kline's Store, corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets, where they will be pleased to see their old friends and new customers.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—We are pleased to learn that it is the intention of the Messrs. Tucker to erect a large and handsome store on Fayetteville street, on the burnt square owned by them, with a spacious Hall above for public entertainments, meetings, &c. The work of excavation is already commenced. This is a most desirable improvement, and will prove, we hope, a profitable investment to the projectors.

CIRCUIT COURT.—We learn that the late appointment of Mr. Mark A. Williams, of this City, as Clerk of the U. S. Circuit Court, by Judge Brooks, was only temporary, and that his Honor has recently appointed Mr. Nathaniel J. Riddick, of Gates County, to that office.—Mr. R., we understand, is fully competent to discharge the duties of the office.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—We learn that, by invitation, a Lecture will be delivered before this Association in the Commons Hall, to-night, by Col. Ed. Graham Haywood. His subject will be the "Christian Statesman," and Col. H.'s reputation, as scholar, writer and speaker, is a sufficient guarantee that the theme will be ably and successfully handled.

The proceeds of the Lecture will be appropriated to the patriotic objects of the Ladies' Memorial Association. The public, have, therefore, not only the inducement of an intellectual treat, but of being able to contribute to a beautiful design, to invite their attendance.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.—The exercises of Commencement week will be opened, on Tuesday evening next, by declamation by the competitors selected from the Freshman class.

The valedictory sermon to the graduating class will be preached on Wednesday forenoon by the Rev. Charles Phillips; and the declamation from the Sophomore class will take place at night.

Gov. Vance will deliver the Annual Address before the two Societies on Thursday morning, and the Senior speeches, with accompanying observances, will occupy the afternoon.

The ball will come off on Thursday night.

THE STONEWALL CEMETERY.—We are gratified to learn that the Agent for the "Stonewall Cemetery," at Winchester, for this State, has received the handsome sum of $274 from Miss Nannie Daves, of Newbern,—being the proceeds of the Concert recently given by the ladies of that City, together with a private contribution. We hope to see the patriotic example of the ladies of Newbern emulated generally.—They have done their part admirably. Let those of other communities be stimulated to do likewise.

MARBLE.—The Editor of the Salisbury Banner has seen a specimen of Marble from the Shuford quarry in Catawba County. He says that it is fully equal, if not superiror, to any Northern Marble. It has fine grain, works well, and the quarry is very extensive. Messrs. Steel and Snuggs are now working the quarry and are prepared to fill orders 50 per cent cheaper than Northern quarries.

To ascertain, beyond cavil or dispute, who burned the city of Columbia, the Radicals consulted a colored oracle, named NASH. With the prompt veracity of his race, and with none of the obscurity of the Delphic revelations, NASH swore with great energy and distinctness that the city was fired by General WADE HAMPTON. This declaration greatly delighted the Radicals in and out of Congress, and NASH was greatly lionized for his timely testimony.

But, in the midst of their premature rejoicings, the veracious NASH appeared before a magistrate and made oath, in the most solemn manner, that "General HAMPTON had nothing to do with the burning of the city of Columbia, but that the nefarious transaction was the work of General SHERMAN and men acting under his command." This second oath has greatly enraged the Radicals, who now rail at the facile NASH as a terrible liar, for merely balancing his books. We feel no disposition to pin our faith to the "intelligent freedman" who has sworn "both ways." Both oaths are before the public. As the vender of "cent-a-grab" piles of notions says, "You pays your money and you takes your choice, Gents!"

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU is just now the target for a general fire. In Knoxville, a colored woman has brought action in Judge Trigg's court against Col John Henry, agent for the Bureau, requiring him to show by what authority he took by force a negro boy from his grandmother and devliered him over to his uncle. The subject involves the jurisdiction of the Freedmen's Bureau over persons declared by the Emancipation Proclamation and by the Civil Rights bill to be free and entitled to all the rights of white citizens. The case was ably argued by T. A. R. Nelson and John Baxter for the petitioner, and by United States District Attorney Hall, and has been taken under advisement by the Court.

Particulars of Gen. Scott's death,---National Honors,---American Wheat brought back from Europe,---Naval and Revenue appointments, &c.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

Gen. Scott was out on Saturday last, at West Point, and showed no signs of his early demise. On Sunday, he began failing fast, though the physicians did not anticipate death immediately. He was entirely conscious until the moment of his death, though he lost his voice two hours before. He recognized the Chaplain of the post, ten minutes before he died, and clasped his hand.

The President has announced "with profound sorrow, to the people of the United States, the death of Winfield Scott, Lieut. General of the army," and directed all the department offices of the Government to be closed on the day which shall be set apart for his funeral.

The War and Navy Departments will respectively give orders for the payment of appropriate honors to the memory of the deceased.

SENATE.—The Colorado Veto passed over.

The reconstruction programme was considered. Mr. Johnson moved to strike out the 3rd. section, disfranchising Confederates until 1870. The section was stricken out by an unanimous vote.

They exclude, from Federal and State offices, those who, having been members of Congress, Legislatures or in judicial offices, took part in the insurrection or gave aid or comfort thereto. Congress may, however, remove such disability by a vote of two-thirds.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast infernal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills and cures the most virulent cases with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the nauseating nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the raving to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Cutaneous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden, Esq., Dinwiddie county Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 66 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the pace of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain, her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed in January, 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's time she was well, and continued so up to the present time; has become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him those Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since. Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to 200 per year. I have used them in my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs into healthy action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints where are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures those disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We cut only assure the sick that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

A BOON TO THE SICK.

AND

PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS,

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS,

Invariably cure the following Diseases,

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,
Dyspepsia,
Inactions,
Dropsy,

NOTICE,

OF

Importance to all whom it may concern.

—READ.—

The undersigned, Agent of the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY for the State of North Carolina, would respectfully inform those who represent deceased friends, insured in this Company, to apply at my office for the settlement of Policies, as soon as the proofs are recently and conveniently made to me.

Mr. JUSTUS KISEY's death has been a source of sorrow in our community. He was one of our most worthy citizens and solid business men, and took the precaution, to time, to provide for his now surviving loved ones by insurance on his life for $5,000 in the ÆTNA, which has never refused to pay a loss promptly. As in this case the persons entitled to receive the amount will please present themselves and the policy at my office for payment.

Here we are furnished with an example of prudent forethought worthy of imitation by each and all who have hearts to love, and hands to provide for their dependent loved ones. The investment of $150 has provided

No man should neglect a transaction so important.

The INDEX will be published as a news paper, and will have nothing to do with parties, politics or politicians. It will give the latest news, general and commercial; local and State items; poetry, anecdotes marriages and deaths.

The terms of subscription and advertising will be put at the lowest notch, and will be published in the first issue of the paper.

WARRENTON, N. C.,

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons traveling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

J. H. HOPE.
